How Should We Lead Our Lives (continued) - a Kabbalistic Answer

❖ Anyone can take this class, regardless if they attended the Fall 2011 session.

Join Rabbi Plotkin to discuss a Kabbalistic classic book called, the Palm tree of Devorah. In it the famous 16th century Kabbalist of Safed, Rabbi Moishe Cordovero teaches us how we are supposed to lead an ethical life based on the Kabbalistic interpretation of a prophetic passage in the book of Micha, and an understanding of the 10 Divine sefirot. Unlike the course in the book of Zohar, this class will not require any prerequisites or background. The introductory lecture will give you enough fundamental material to be able to follow the book and unlock a guide to leading a meaningful and purposeful life.

Each class begins at 7:30 PM on Tuesdays, and students are asked to purchase the book The Palm Tree of Devorah translated by Moshe Miller, published by Targum Press, distributed by Feldheim Publishers and available at Amazon.com.

Meet: 01/03, 01/10, 01/17, 01/24, 01/31

Time: 7:30 - 8:30 P.M. Fee: $30 for Members / $37 for Non-Members

Studying The Talmud - Sunday Morning classes

This class is a continuation of the very successful Friday morning, Talmud class. We will be studying the tractate Pesachim, which deals in part with issues about Passover. Rabbi Plotkin will review the background of Talmud studies during the first session for those who have no back-ground and then we'll continue with teaching the text in ENGLISH. Bagels and coffee will be served.

Meet: 01/08, 01/15, 01/29, 02/26, 03/04, 03/18, 04/22 Time: 9:15 - 10:00 A.M.
